COURSE OVERVIEW

Take your ICAO compliant aviation English test using the Jeppesen testing and assessment solution. Those who do not meet the ICAO Level 4 requirement will be required to complete training. Your training can be completed entirely online or taken partially online through a blended learning approach that combines distance learning with onsite classroom learning, which research indicates is the most effective approach.

COURSE CONTENT

Our English training integrates topics such as Flight Safety, Meteorology and Aviation Physiology, focusing on the terminology critical to your career. Training also contains exercises such as ATC to Pilot Communication based upon real ATC tapes from a variety of international locations. Each course includes interesting topics and interactive activities.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Pilots, air traffic controllers, dispatchers, and other individuals seeking an ICAO Level 4 English certification.
